Year-End Review 2015

The North American League offers Series in five divisions – Adult Jumper Presented by SmartPak, Children's Jumper Presented by EquiFit, Low Junior/Amateur-Owner Jumper Presented by UltrOZ, Adult Hunter and Children's Hunter.

The Series includes classes held at hundreds of horse shows across the United States and Canada. The North American League (NAL) gives riders in these divisions a chance to ride in year-end finals at two major indoor shows – The NAL National Finals at the Pennsylvania National Horse Show at Harrisburg in October and the NAL West Coast Finals at the Las Vegas National Horse Show in November.

The winners of this year's five Finals received an NAL coolerette, and gift certificates from SmartPak, EquiFit, Pony Pizza Company and The Clothes Horse. Pennsylvania National Horse Show Finals winners received a crystal vase and Las Vegas National Horse Show Finals winners received a trophy. Every rider competing in the NAL Finals received a gift bag with an assortment of gifts from the NAL including a commemorative NAL Finals stall plaque.

For more information regarding the North American League series please call (717) 867-5643, email to NAL@Ryegate.com or visit www.ryegate.com. Follow us on Facebook at www.facebook.com/NALFinals.

Olivia Dorey and Ali Baba B Are The Best In $5,000 NAL Low Junior/Amateur Owner Jumper Final, Presented by UltrOZ

Olivia Dorey, 23, from Sudbury, MA, and her horse Ali Baba B won the $5,000 NAL Low Junior/Amateur-Owner Jumper Final Presented by UltrOZ at the Pennsylvania National Horse Show.

Dorey and Ali Baba B, a seven-year-old gelding, were one of six horse-and-rider combinations to go clear over the first round course to advance to the jump-off round. Many of the other pairs had faster times than Dorey, but could not leave all the fences intact.

“The course seemed made for my horse,” said Dorey. “I get excited when I look at a course and see left-hand turns, because he’s really good at those, he has a natural left drift. The left turn after jump 2 really helped us out because he landed right on that left standard and galloped right on to the next jump.”

The left drift paid off for Dorey as she and Ali Baba B left all the fences up and crossed the timers in 36.296 seconds, a full 3 seconds faster than the only other double clear, posted by second place finisher Christina Firestone with Mr. and Mrs. Bertram Firestone’s Chantilly, who cleared the track in 39.287 seconds.

“I have ridden him for a year and a half and have owned him for a year,” said Dorey of Ali Baba B. “I rode him in the six and seven-year-olds, so he is a young jumper and I’ve been paired up with him ever since, and he has won a lot of classes along the way. I’ve never trusted any horse as much as I trust this one. You point him at a jump and he just goes. I absolutely love him. I’ve never done jumpers indoors, this was my first real Final event so it was a lot of fun.”

Lindsey Tomeu of Wellington, FL, rode Bonapart to victory in the $10,000 NAL Adult Amateur Jumper Final Presented by SmartPak at the Pennsylvania National Horse Show.

Tomeu and her 14-year-old, Belgian Warmblood claimed the win for the second straight year over a field of 30 finalists who earned their places in the Final as the top finishers in the year-long NAL standings.

"He is a very special horse and I owe every win, I owe everything to him," the 21-year-old rider said. "I've never had a horse like him. He's definitely my horse of a lifetime."

Nine of the 30 starters reached the jump-off with clean first rounds and the first to return for the tiebreaker was Logan Marksbury of Lexington, KY, and Evano S. Marksbury set the mark to beat, riding her 11-year-old, Belgian Warmblood to a clean ride and a time of 37.527 seconds.

None of the next seven entries could match Marksbury's score with the only other clean ride coming from Christina Couper of Charleston, SC and her 7-year-old, Hanoverian mare, Cora. However, their time of 38.922 seconds was not quite fast enough, giving them an eventual third-place finish.

The last to try to catch Marksbury and Evano S were Tomeu and Bonapart, who topped the NAL regular-season standings with a whopping 8,809 points. They blazed over the course seemingly without effort and finished clean in 34.957 seconds to clinch the win for the second straight year.

"I was really nervous today and put an awful lot of pressure on myself but it was actually an improvement from last year's jump-off where I almost killed him and he continued to keep going," Tomeu said of her partner of one-and-a-half years. "I have no other words to describe other than to say that he is amazing!"

Skyllar Beckel and Lyons Creek Action Take $10,000 NAL Children's Jumper Final, Presented by EquiFit

Skyllar Beckel of New Albany, OH, rode her Lyons Creek Action to victory in the $10,000 NAL Children's Jumper Final Presented by EquiFit at the Pennsylvania National Horse Show.

Seven horses out of a starting field of 30 made it through a difficult first-round course to reach the jump-off round. Course designer Michel Vaillancourt peppered both courses with questions for the Children's Jumper riders to try to answer.

Beckel was the last to enter the ring with Lyons Creek Action, after already going on her other horse Charmeur Van De Begunakker. She exited the ring with a clear round in a time of 35.701 seconds, answering every question placed in her path to take home the victory.

"The course was pretty good for me," said a very happy Beckel. "I think because I had already done it, I knew where to turn; and because I know Action so well, I have more confidence with him. The turn to the skinny fence was tricky because when you made the turn, the fence was right there and it had a scary plank. So riding before, I knew that. He had a problem with water that my trainer David [Biesel] helped me through, so the Liverpool wasn't a problem.

"I've had him for two years, and this year we went to Florida and I think that the experience we gained in Florida really helped my confidence. I want to ride in college and make it in the big jumpers one day," Beckel said with a modest smile.

Second place went to Mary Elizabeth Cordia aboard Coritano, owned by Robert Jornayvaz, who also turned in double clear rounds. Her time of 38.760 seconds was not fast enough to hold off Beckel.

Elizabeth Reynolds and Own the Moment Own the Win in the $10,000 NAL Adult Hunter Final, Presented by Eighteen Acres Farm

Elizabeth Reynolds of Southampton, NJ and Own the Moment owned highest honors in the $10,000 NAL Adult Hunter Final and the Lisa A. H. Cudahy Perpetual Trophy at the Pennsylvania National Horse Show. Reynolds could not believe her good fortune as this was her first time competing in the NAL Finals and she was riding the first horse she ever owned.

"We worked hard all year trying to get here. Never in my wildest dreams did I imagine this would happen," said Reynolds. "It all paid off in the end and I just thank God for it all."

Reynolds began riding when she was eight-years-old, but she took ten years off to join the Air Force. She decided to get back in the saddle four years ago and purchased "Jag," as he is affectionately called, the following year. She could not be happier with him.

"He's wonderful, I adore him," said Reynolds of the 13-year-old Selle Francais. "He is just about the best horse in the whole wide world. In the first year he broke his foot so we had a long road back from that. But he's perfect now, he's awesome."

A field of 27 riders competed in the Adult Hunter Finals over the Allen Rheinheimer designed course. The 12 highest scoring competitors judged by Ralph Caristo and Linda Hough were invited back for the second round and competition was fierce as only three points separated the top three. Since they ride in reverse order of merit, Reynolds was the last to go and she knew she had her work cut out for her.

Linda Corvari of Long Valley, NJ and Eastwood had already gone, improving on their first-round score of 80 to earn an 83 in the second round for a total of 163 points. Reynolds and Own the Moment scored an 82 in Round One and so there was little margin for error. They repeated their first-round tally of 82 and secured the win with 164 points.

"My horse was great," said Reynolds. "We just kind of kept it together. I was able to chill and just ride instead of getting nervous. I am a nervous person anyway, so it's a battle for me. I just tried to do my best."

Samantha Karp and Zentina B Take $10,000 NAL Children's Hunter Final

Samantha Karp, 18, of Wellington, FL, is on a winning streak. With her mount, Zentina B, she won the $10,000 North American League (NAL) Children's Hunter Final and the Laura Palmer Pickett Memorial Perpetual Trophy at the Pennsylvania National Horse Show. The pair were also the year-end point leaders in the National Children's Hunter Division of the NAL.

The riders competed over a course of nine fences, including a one-stride combination, artistically created by course designer Allen Rheinheimer, and before judges Ralph Caristo and Linda Hough.

The competition featured two rounds over fences, scored on a numeric basis. Karp and Zentina B were the high scorers in the first round, where they bested a field of 30 by garnering the top score of 87 points. The top twelve were then invited back to compete in round two. The pair again posted the high score of 87, for a total of 174 points.

"I got her almost a year ago," said Karp, referring to "Tina". "She was supposed to be my jumper and a few weeks into the Winter Equestrian Festival I decided that I really didn't want to do the jumpers. We didn't know what to do with her and then we decided to try her in the hunters, not really to win but just to see if I liked doing that better. Her first week out she won. Since then she has won at almost every show she has gone to. She has been enjoying it as much as I have, I think.

"She had done really well in the jumpers and the equitation, but I wasn't the best at riding her in that," Karp said with a laugh. "Now that we started this, I think we have both found something that we really like, so we work well doing it together.

"She is a great horse, and so willing. The first week out we gave her the corrections and she did really well with them so she learned really fast. This will be my only season on her. I plan on moving up to the 3'6" Amateur Owners next year, and I'll get new horses for that. I hope a good children's hunter rider will get her and have as much fun on her as I have had. She is a good horse."

Alexandra Ozymy and Curtis 57 Rule In The $5,000 NAL West Coast Low Junior/Amateur-Owner Jumper Final, Presented by UltrOZ

© McCool Photos

Alexandra Ozymy from Coppell, TX, and her horse Curtis 57, won the $5,000 NAL West Coast Low Junior/Amateur-Owner Jumper Final Presented by UltrOZ at the Las Vegas National Horse Show.

Ozymy and Curtis 57 were one of three horse-and-rider combinations who went clear in the first round and qualified for the jump-off. In the second round, the pair had the only clean round with the fastest time of 37.177 seconds.

Chandler Meadows of Newport Beach, CA, riding Petit Prince De Laume were reserve, while Cristobal Callado of San Diego, CA took home third place riding Cassena.

“Going first in the jump-off I really had to discipline myself to ride my track and not worry about what everyone else was going to ride, just go in and ride my plan and if that was good enough to win then that was going to be great,” stated Ozymy.

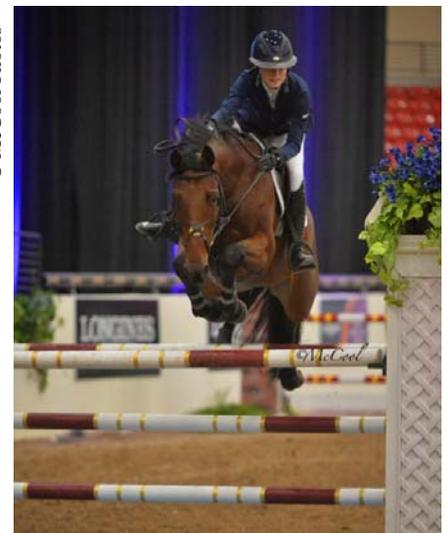

The win had added meaning to Ozymy as this was her last year as a junior rider. She stated, “This year I completed a lot of the goals I had for myself as a rider. I went to Young Riders and Prix des States for Zone 7, and I was able to compete in my first National Standard Grand Prix. Winning the Final was a great experience and the best end to my junior career I could have asked for.

“My biggest influence would have to be my trainer, Christian Heineking,” she continued. “I’ve been riding with him for about a year and half now, and I’ve seen a huge improvement in my riding. Christian is always pushing me to work harder and to be more disciplined in my riding, and he sets a great example for me in his own riding.

“I’d also like to thank my parents for always supporting me and giving me the best opportunity possible to succeed as a rider.

“My favorite thing to say to myself before I walk into the ring is ‘she is clothed in strength and dignity’ which come from Proverbs 31:25 in the Bible,” Ozymy explained. “That verse always gives me the courage to be confident for my horse and for myself while we’re on course, and to walk out of the ring with my head up no matter what happens.”

Emily Straw and Washington Win the $5,000 NAL Adult Jumper Final, Presented by SmartPak

© McCool Photos

Emily Straw of Overland park, KS, dominated the $5,000 NAL West Coast Adult Amateur Jumper Final. Straw took first and second places aboard Washington and Filibuster respectively.

Just seven horses out of a starting field of twenty-one made it through to the jump-off after a difficult first round. Straw produced a clear round with the fastest jump-off time of 30.267 seconds to clinch the win with Washington. Another clear round, but with a slower time of 31.246 seconds secured second place for Straw aboard Filibuster. Third place went to Dakota Mower of Springville, UT, on his horse Acco Leth with a time of 31.441.

“I thought that it would be fast, I wasn’t quite sure my time would hold up given there were four or five left to go in the jump-off,” Straw explained. “I knew my second horse would be super clean because he is careful and tends to be a little but slower, so I was hopeful that Washington would be able to hold on.

“I have been blessed with two amazing horses over the past two years,” she explained. “Washington is a competitor. He is careful, fast and brave. He is easy going and is an amateur’s dream. Filibuster is such a character, tries his heart out, never has a bad day and has won from coast to coast. He is quirky, very exuberant and knows that he is exceptional. He is also a bit snarky but we all love him for his character and his desire to win!”

Straw started riding when she was six years-old in Denver, Colorado. “I showed with Connie Curtis and Frank Conway and I hunted with the Arapahoe Hounds,” she said. “I started doing the NAL classes ten years ago. I did the NAL Adult Hunters in 2005 with 5 O’clock Somewhere and have focused on the NAL Adult Jumpers ever since, mostly with Filibuster.” She has been training with Kris Cheyne of Kirin Farm in Kansas since 2012.

“Judy Richter has been my biggest influence both in and out of my riding. She is not only a phenomenal horsewoman, but a classic example of someone who has integrity and dignity, and is also involved in the community. Judy also has strong professional and family values. It was with Judy, and her horse Riverman, that I won the twenty USET classes and received the USET Gold.”

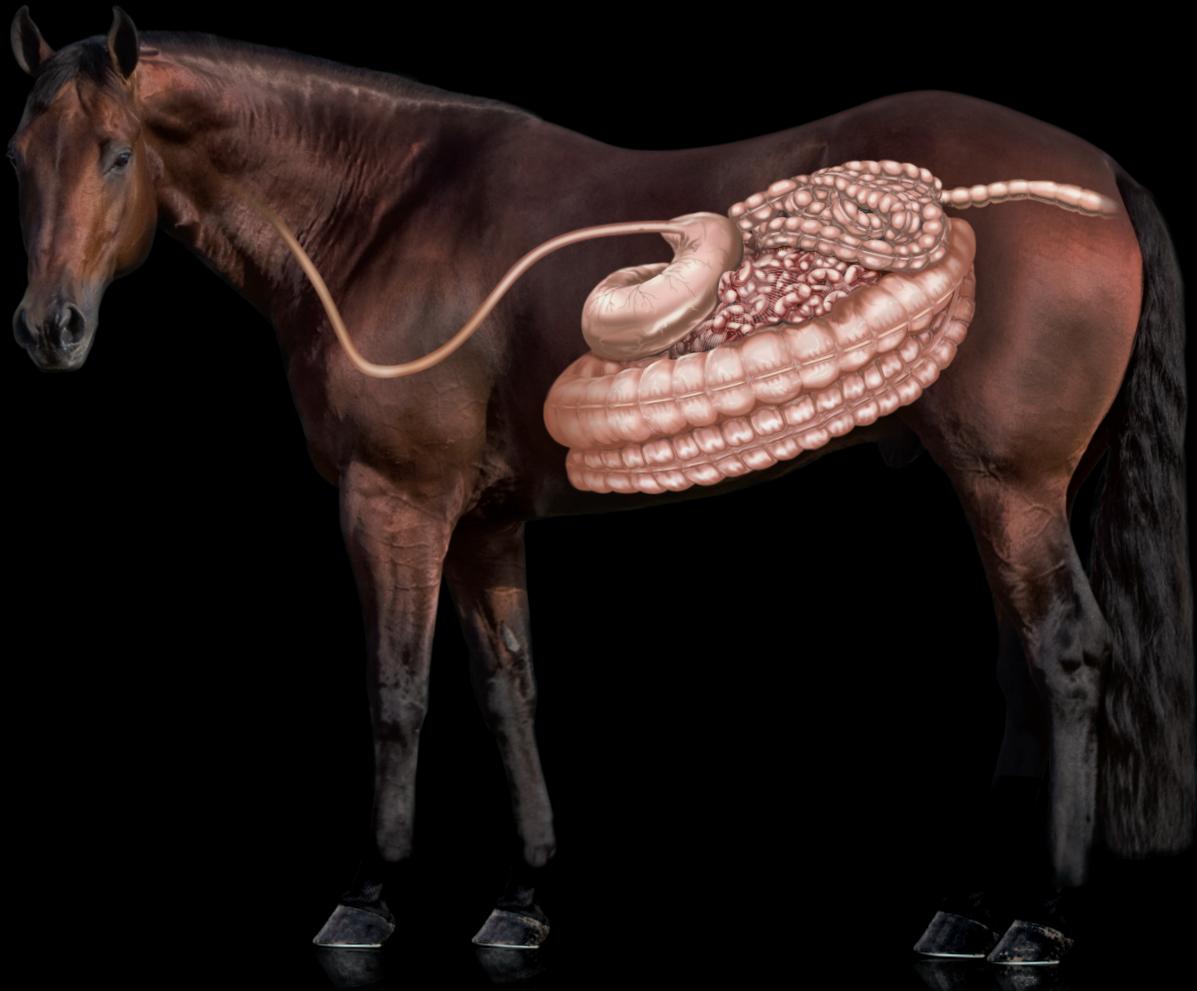

Straw is a Managing Director at Palmer Square Capital Management in Kansas as a hedge fund manager. She travels throughout North America working with foundations, endowments and pensions.

“I feel I have balance in my life between working on Wall Street, my family and my riding,” she commented. “Having the support and patience of my parents, Bill and Elizabeth Straw, my trainer Kris Cheyne as well as the team and caretakers for the horses. I am very fortunate.”

Sydney Denham and Quidam Van De Kapel Win The $5,000 NAL West Coast Children's Jumper Final, Presented by EquiFit

© McCool Photos

Sydney Denham of Portland, OR and her horse Quidam Van De Kapel, won the $5,000 NAL Children's Jumper Final Presented by EquiFit at the Las Vegas National Horse Show.

Seven horses out of a field of 25 rode clean over the 11-jump, 14-effort first-round course designed by Olaf Peterson, Jr. of Germany to qualify for the jump-off. Four other riders had clean jump-off rounds, but Denham had the fastest time of 31.208 seconds to claim the win.

Lauren Janes of Los Gatos, CA, rode Madison Avenue to the first clean round over the 8-jump tie breaker course, finishing in a time of 35.666 seconds. Two rides later, Denham blazed over the course on Quidam Van De Kapel and clinched the win. Janes held on for second place and third place went to Sydney Matterson of Boulder, CO who finished clean in 35.166 seconds on Galina 177.

"Quimy is such a good boy," smiled Denham. "He is so careful so when he is on, he is on. Almost any distance I give him he'll jump it."

When asked about her favorite NAL experience, she said, "Of course my favorite NAL experience has been winning the NAL Finals. Quimy and I had a great ride that day. Riding at the Las Vegas show for the first time was such an awesome experience."

Denham stated that her biggest influences in her riding are her coaches Rich and Shelly Fellers. "Even though I have only been riding with them for four years, I have learned and improved greatly under their influence. They have been supportive throughout my time with them."

The student at Lincoln High School in Portland has been riding with Rich, the 2012 World Cup Champion and Olympic veteran, for four years, riding 4 to 6 days a week.

Denham began riding when she was two, participating in pony camps until she started taking lessons once a week at the age of 5. She said that her favorite thing to do while riding is jumping. Aside from riding, Denham enjoys drawing and hiking.

Polly Sweeney of San Marino, CA, riding Archibald Cox's horse Velours, earned second place while third place went to Nancy Butano of Bend, OR, riding Sideswipe owned by Copper Lane Farm.

Sommers started riding at the age of 4 and began competing when she turned 8. "I have always been very passionate about riding and even when I entered college I continued to ride my horses," she explained.

This year was Sommers's first year competing at the NAL Finals and all of her hard work paid off. "I was beyond thrilled to receive my award after two hard rounds," said Sommers. "I had the biggest smile on my face during the victory gallop and I was so happy that all my hard work from the year paid off at the Finals."

"I have always been so thankful for everything I have and appreciate that I am still able to compete and ride my horses," stated Sommers.

Sommers's biggest influences are her parents and trainer. "My mom and dad have always been extremely supportive and allowed me to follow my passion of riding horses. They have always inspired me to work hard and I feel I have accomplished so much in my riding and I owe it all to them," stated Sommers. "My trainer, Liz Reilly, has always been there for me at every horse show and her teaching has led me to such a successful career in the hunter ring. She has influenced me in so many ways and I always feel confident."

Samantha Sommers of Thousand Oaks, CA, and Small Adventure won the $5,000 NAL Adult Hunter Final at the Las Vegas National Horse Show. This put the exclamation point on a great year where she topped both the National and West Coast year-end standings in the Adult Hunter Division.

Sommers proved hard to beat in the Final. In the first round, Sommers and Small Adventure, owned by Reilly Iwasaki, earned a total of 85 points, missing the top score by one point. The top twelve riders were invited back to compete in round two where the pair then posted the high score of 86, for a two-round total of 171 points.

Amy Coretz and Don Ramiro Take $5,000 NAL West Coast Children's Hunter Final

© McCool Photos

Amy Coretz of Tulsa, OK, won the $5,000 NAL West Coast Children's Hunter Final for the second year in a row at the Las Vegas National Horse Show. She won the Final on her horse, Don Ramiro, while also taking home second place on Eighteen Acres Farm's Sweet Potato Pie.

The competition featured a field of 16 horses with two rounds. In the first round, Cotetz and Don Ramiro earned a score of 84 points, just one point away from the top score which was turned in by Lauren Burke riding Basic Instinct. Twelve horses were invited back to compete in round two where Coretz and Don Ramiro posted the high score of 83, for a total of 167 points.

Coretz took home second place with Sweet Potato Pie with a top score of 163 and Lauren Burke of Las Vegas, NV, and Basic Instinct earned third place with 162 points.

"Amy is a great rider who dominated with consistent rounds on both horses," said Anne Braswell, who judged the Final along with Pat Boyle.

This was Coretz's last year as a junior rider and all of her hard work has really paid off. "I love learning new things so I can be the best possible rider for each of my horses. I spend more of my time between shows focusing on dressage lessons. This emphasis on flatwork has made a huge difference in my horses and in my riding," said Coretz.

Cortez started riding at the age of 4 with Libby Barrow at Farewell Farm in Tulsa, Oklahoma. She started riding competitively when she turned 8. Last year was her first year competing in the NAL Finals and her goal after the show was to qualify for the 2015 Finals.

"I love the NAL Finals in Vegas," said Coretz. "The horse show is so different from any show I've ever been to. It was so cool walking through a hotel and casino to get to the horse show."

When asked about her biggest influence Coretz stated, "My biggest influence is my sister, Mindy, who won the NAL Adult Hunter West Coast Final in 2013. She has always been such a great role model to me. She's been there for me to show me the ropes of riding since day one and I think it's safe to say, I've learned from the best."
